Statement of Procedure

- A. ChildNet exercises due diligence in its compliance with the requirements of Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) and any applicable state or local laws regarding physical accessibility to and within its facilities. See also CN 009.001 – Americans with Disabilities Act.
- B. Evidence of compliance includes but is not limited to:
- Removed structural barriers
 - Accessible parking provided for person(s) with disabilities
 - Obstructing furniture removed from our buildings
 - Lowered water fountains for easy access.
- C. In planning the location and use of ChildNet's office(s) the organization considers the proximity to major local transportation, making its office easily accessible.
- D. The organization adapts its services in order to accommodate the visual, auditory, linguistic, and motor abilities of persons served. Accommodations are reflected in the ChildNet Auxiliary Aids Plan for Persons with Disabilities and Limited-English Proficiency Plan.
